1. Subscriptions (Rule 3).—(1) Before proceeding on extraordinary leave without leave salary or on leave with leave salary under Fundamental Rule 88, the subscriber should intimate to the Accountant-General, Bengal, whether he wishes to subscribe during such leave. No alteration will be permissible in the option so exercised for the period of the leave. If the subscriber fails to intimate before proceeding on leave he will be deemed to have exercised his option in favour of subscribing during leave and deductions should be made accordingly.

(2) The instructions in sub-para. (1) will apply mutatis mutandis to a subscriber under suspension during which reduced remuneration is drawn.

(3) A subscriber transferred to foreign service or sent on deputation out of India shall, before proceeding to join his new duties, intimate to the Accountant-General, Bengal, the amount of his emoluments while on foreign service or deputation out of India and any change therein in order to enable the Account Officer to verify whether the rate of subscription is in accordance with Rule 3.

(4) Subscriptions to the Fund will be recovered—

(i) in respect of emoluments drawn from a Government Treasury in India or a Colonial or Home Treasury, by deduction from the emoluments;

(ii) in respect of sterling overseas pay by deduction in India from pay; and

3. Contribution by Government (Rule 6).—In the case of a subscriber on foreign service, a contribution of Rs. 15 a month should be recovered from the foreign employer towards Government's liability under rule 6. Such contribution is payable during duty only.

4. Payments towards policies of insurance or subscriptions to a fmily pension fund (Rule 7).—(1) When a subscriber desires to divert or withdraw money from the Fund to pay subscriptions to an approved Family Pension Fund or a premium towards a policy of life insurance under Rule 7, he shall intimate to the Accountant-General, Bengal, on his pay bill or by letter the fact of, and reason for, the reduction or withdrawal of money as the case may be. In the latter case he may also make necessary arrangements with the Accountant-General, Bengal, for the withdrawal of money from the Fund.

(2) The Accountant-General, Bengal, shall demand periodically to see the receipts or certified copies thereof showing that the amount so withheld or withdrawn has been duly applied. Failing the production of such receipts he shall order the recovery of any amount by which subscriptions have been reduced or any amount withdrawn, with interest thereon at the rate prescribed in Rule 4 from the subscriber's pay or leave salary in one or more instalments as it thinks fit.

5. Assignments and Re-assignments (Rules 11, 12 and 13).—Assignments under rule 11 and re-assignments under rule 12 or 13, as the case may be, should be in such one of the forms appended to these instructions as is appropriate in the circumstances.

The persons to whom any amount is payable from the Fund should make their own arrangements to receive payment in India.

(2) If the person to whom any payment is to be made from the Fund is a lunatic, payment should be made to the authority entitled under the law to receive payment on his behalf.

(2) Subscribers are required to satisfy themselves as to the correctness of the annual statements. If no statement of account is received by the 1st of October, the subscriber should communicate with the Accountant-General, Bengal.

Public Service Commission, Bengal.

NOTICE.

WITH reference to the Bengal Civil Service (Judicial) Recruitment Rules, 1941, it is hereby notified that 10 appointments to the Service will be made during the current year. In view of appointments already made and in accordance with the Bengal Communal Ratio Rules, 5 of the appointments will be reserved for Muslims, 2 for members of Scheduled Castes and 3 for non-Muslims, provided that suitable candidates from these communities are available.

2. As the quota fixed for Assam has already been filled, there will be no recruitment of any candidate from Assam to any of these 10 posts.

3. A candidate should be under 27 years of age on the 1st January 1944 and also be either a graduate in Law of some statutory university or a Barrister or a member of the Faculty of Advocates in Scotland or an Advocate or an Attorney on the rolls of the High Court in Calcutta.

Persons who may wish to apply should submit their applications in the prescribed form, copies of which and of the Bengal Civil Service (Judicial) Recruitment Rules, 1941, may be obtained from the Secretary, Public Service Commission, Bengal, Secretariat Building, Darjeeling, personally or on sending an addressed envelope with a nine pies stamp. The applications must not be addressed to the Secretary by name and should reach him, complete with necessary certificates, treasury chalan (for Rs. 10), etc., not later than the 16th May 1944.

5. A number of candidates considered prima facie suitable will be called upon to appear before a Medical Board for a certificate of their fitness for Government Service in Form A of Schedule IV of the Bengal Provincial Services Recruitment Rules; an order to appear before the Medical Board must not, however, be understood to mean that the candidate, if found fit, will necessarily receive an appointment as the number of candidates who will be summoned for medical examination will be in excess of the total number of vacancies, and the question of his appointment will depend upon the results of the medical examination taken as a whole; intending candidates are advised before they apply for recruitment to the Service to satisfy themselves that they are likely to qualify as physically fit, for experience has shown that a considerable number of the candidates are rejected by the Medical Board as unfit.

6. The Commission will only acknowledge receipt of an application or reply to an enquiry about an application if a stamped envelope accompanies the enquiry or request for acknowledgment. The Commission are unable to give any indication of what has been their recommendation to Government in respect of an application received by them.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 440L.C.—27th March 1944.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 51 of the Bengal Legislative Council Procedure Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 17th March 1944, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE BENGAL ANTI-DOWRY BILL, 1944.

A

to abolish the receipt of dowry in connection with Hindu marriages.

WHEREAS it is expedient to abolish the practice of receiving dowry in connection with Hindu marriages;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Anti-Dowry Act, 1944.

(2) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(1) "dowry" means anything in money or in kind,—

(a) paid by the father or guardian or any relative of a bride, or by any person on behalf of a bride, to a bridegroom or the father or guardian or any relative of a bridegroom, or

(b) paid by a bridegroom or the father or guardian or any relative of a bridegroom, or by any person on behalf of a bridegroom, to the father or guardian or any relative of a bride, or

(c) displayed before the gaze of the visitors and guests attending the marriage ceremony

in consideration of any marriage between Hindus, whether such payment is made before or during the solemnization of the marriage, but does not include any gift in money or in kind made voluntarily by and to any of the persons aforementioned after the solemnization of the marriage or in conformity with the absolutely necessary religious ceremony which forms part of the solemnization of the marriage;

(2) "marriage" means a contract for the union of a male person and a female person, and includes a ceremony for such union recognized by Hindu religion.

Prohibition of payment or receipt of dowry.

3. No person, being the father or guardian or relative of a bride, or on behalf of a bride, or being a bridegroom or the father or guardian or relative of a bridegroom, or on behalf of a bridegroom, shall receive a dowry.

The Bengal Anti-Dowry Bill, 1944.

(Clauses 4—6.)

Penalties. 4. Whoever, in contravention of the provisions of section 3, receives a dowry, shall on conviction be punishable with simple imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

Procedure. 5. (1) No Magistrate other than a Presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of the first class shall try an offence punishable under section 4.

(2) An offence punishable under section 4 shall be non-cognizable, and shall be triable in accordance with the procedure provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the trial of summons cases.

(3) No Magistrate shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under section 4 unless the complainant has deposited in the Government Treasury the sum of one hundred rupees, except in cases where the complainant is the actual party who paid the dowry or a bona fide social welfare Association.

(4) No Magistrate shall proceed to try an offence punishable under section 4 until the accused has been afforded an opportunity of showing cause before the Court against his prosecution.

(5) If, at any time after taking cognizance of an offence punishable under section 4, a Magistrate is satisfied that the complaint is false and either frivolous or vexatious, he shall, for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, direct that the whole of the sum deposited by the complainant under sub-section (3) be forfeited and may direct the complainant to pay to the accused such sum by way of compensation as the Magistrate thinks fit.

Appeal. 6. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, an appeal shall lie respectively to the High Court or the Sessions Judge from any order made under section 5 by a Presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of the first class.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The dowry or pana system in connection with a marriage agreement is really obnoxious and is a standing disgrace to a society in which it is prevalent. Not only Snehalatas are victims to this pernicious practice but many cultivator or artisan classes of Bengal are going to be extinct under the pressure of the all-levelling steel roller of kannya pana or bride-money; whatever these people lay by with their sweated labour they lose in contracting costly marriages from their point of view and often become burdened with mortgages and pledges which they can never redeem. All the brothers of a family in many cases cannot marry and if a wife is dead he cannot dream of a second marriage. Widow remarriages being still unknown utter ruin stares these classes in the face. This evil custom is on the other hand spreading its baneful effects on the society of our sister community of common origin, namely, the Muslim community of Bengal. The poor Muslim peasantry are constantly complaining that their society is also imitating this ruinous custom from their Hindu brothers. Like infectious epidemics of Bengal this pestilential custom is eating into the vitals of the society and is no respecter of persons, communities or classes. It requires a strong hand to put it down. When society loses its soul it requires a lashing of the severest nature to bring it round to its sense from the stupor and callousness of ages. I have the greatest respect for the opinion of those who think that social conscience should be roused by educating public opinion and bringing moral pressure thereon. But this also should be borne in mind that social legislation often helps such education wonderfully and beyond all expectations. Social propaganda and social education on the lines generally suggested by the social reformers and orthodox social workers should not be minimised and discouraged, but the dog-in-the-manger policy in social reforms must be once for all abandoned. The do-nothing fellows who want to burke all social legislations on the plea that reforms must come from within should now read the signs of the times that unless useful reforms are welcome in the social structure which has rusted, the waves of all devouring so-called socialistic ideas will sweep away many of their much beloved social customs of long-standing usefulness before it is too late to mend with the speed of an eastern typhoon. Has not the Sarda Act with all its faults helped to raise the marriageable age of a bride? Pernicious customs like the sati and the throwing of babies into the junction of the Ganges and the sea were stopped by legislation. Any how and at any cost this evil custom must be eradicated from the social life. Attacks may be launched from all possible manner and all possible sides. With this end in view and with the fervent hope that my brother legislators will dispassionately help to place this social welfare measure on the State Book at an early date, this Bill is introduced.
